

John Conlee

Kentucky native and Grand Ole Opry member since 1981, John Conlee, has one of country music's most recognizable voices. The first song John ever performed that was committed to memory was "Love Me Tender" which he did for a school assembly when he was in the 4th grade. The song was a hit at the time. Self-penned and signature hit "Rose Colored Glasses," was the first of his many hits. Conlee went on to release 29 single releases throughout the years with 26 of them charting in the Top 10 or better. Some of the songs from the John Conlee hit list include "Back Side of Thirty," "Lady Lay Down," "Friday Night Blues," "Common Man," "I'm Only In It For The Love," "Domestic Life," "Got My Heart Set On You" and "In My Eyes." All of Conlee's hits have that unmistakable common thread - that unique voice. Conlee hasn't slowed down and continues to cut songs with substance with the release of Classics 2 that includes a tribute to law enforcement titled "Walkin' Behind the Star."

The Music

NEW ALBUM: Classics 2 (2015)
FIRST ALBUM: Rose Colored Glasses (1978)

- Born on a tobacco farm in Versailles, KY, John still farms today. "We did a little of everything on the farm. Besides tobacco, we also raised cattle, hogs, sheep and chickens and did custom machine work (baling, combining, etc.) for other farmers in addition to our own. We always raised a garden and canned or froze the harvest thereof. I'm still doing that these days with a garden of about ¼ acre in size."
- Before music, he was a licensed mortician employed by Duell-Clark Funeral Chapel
- He got his foot in the door of the music business by becoming a DJ for radio station WLAC in Nashville, TN
- John performs nearly 70 shows a year across America and takes his turn behind the wheel of his tour bus while out on the road
