

The Oak Ridge Boys are known across the globe for their exceptional four-part harmonies, energetic stage performances, mega hits, and multiple Gold Records.

Their music has earned them five Grammys, nine Dove Awards, CMA and ACM Awards, and membership in the Grand Ole Opry. In 2015, they were inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame, arguably country music's highest honor. For more than 40 years, The Oak Ridge Boys have charted single after single, and album after album, along the way producing one of the most extraordinary musical successes in recording history. Lead singer Duane Allen, along with bass singer Richard Sterban, tenor Joe Bonsall, and baritone William Lee Golden have forged one of country's most legendary acts. Their string of hits includes "Elvira," "Bobbie Sue," "Thank God For Kids," and "American Made," among dozens more.
