

Sam Moore

The Legendary Soul Man™

NEW ALBUM: AN AMERICAN PATRIOT

The first 20-plus years of Sam Moore's sensational career began by lending his unmistakable lead vocals to GRAMMY Award-winning, Memphis-based Stax Records, soul duo Sam & Dave. Songs like "Hold On I'm Coming," "I Thank You," "When Something Is Wrong With My Baby," "Soul Sister," and the 1967 smash hit "Soul Man," catapulted the duo's career up the Pop and R&B Charts, selling more than 10 million records worldwide and earning them lasting fame. Their signature sound and widespread success earned them an induction into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1992.

While Sam has tremendous love and respect for the music he created as part of the duo, he has also scored critical acclaim as a solo artist for more than 35 years. Performing from one side of the globe to the other, Sam has made appearances at some of the world's most iconic venues, including Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, The Hollywood

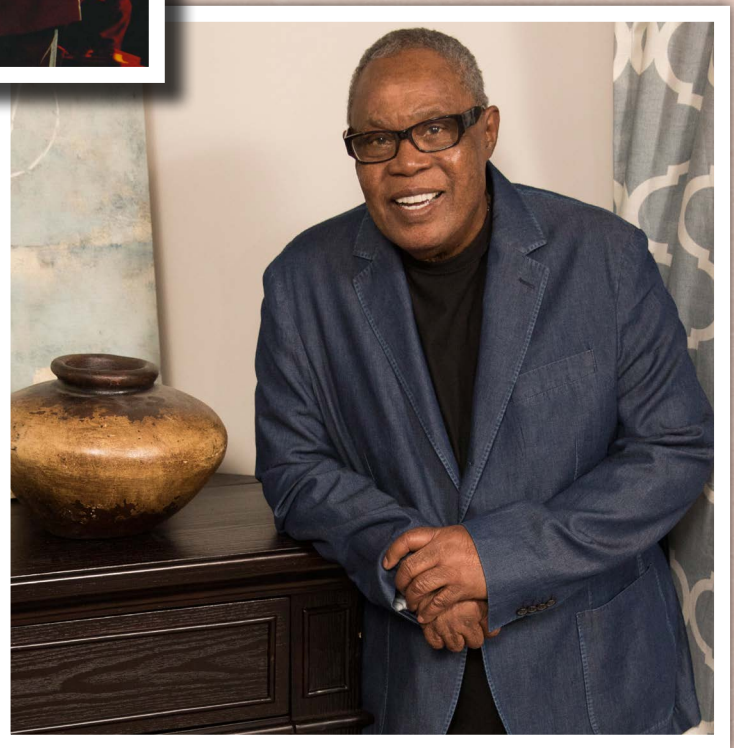

Bowl, Ryman Auditorium, The Grand Old Opry, Royal Albert Hall, Nippon Budokan, and The John F. Kennedy Center. The White House, Lincoln Memorial and Washington Monument are among other notable venues at which Sam has performed.

As he approaches his 82nd birthday, Sam is releasing his newest album, Sam Moore: An American Patriot, this October, which features exclusive renditions of iconic American classics including "God Bless America," "Star Spangled Banner," and "Show For You," the 2017 Department of Defense Warrior Games anthem, done in Sam's uniquely distinguishable style. His patriotic album was inspired by Sam's own performance of "America the Beautiful" on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, where his dear friend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. stood 53 years earlier delivering his famous "I Have a Dream" speech.
